Dear friend of the Albany Police Supervisors' Association:

First, let me introduce our association to you: We are the not for profit employee organization representing the sergeants and lieutenants of the Albany Police Department. Having formed in October of 2004, our association is fairly new and may not be widely known to the businesses and citizens of the great city we serve. Our members are the professional and dedicated police supervisors who directly oversee the men and women of the Albany Police Department and we are committed to providing those men and women with the proper guidance and leadership they need and deserve.

In addition to representing our membership, we would like to become more deeply involved in the community we are so honored to serve. One of our goals is to work towards supporting some of the many youth organizations in the city. Additionally, for the past four holiday seasons, our association's membership has contributed to a fund, which supplies Christmas gifts to needy families in the City of Albany. We also participate in worthy community events such as our annual sponsorship of the Lieutenant John Finn Memorial Blood Drive. Also, for the past two years our association's members and their families have raised money for, and participated in, a walk to prevent child abuse. This is only the beginning of our vision of giving back to the community we so proudly serve. In order to continue to serve our members and expand our civic involvement, we need your support.

Our association is seeking your support for the second edition of our official yearly publication, The Supervisor. Members of our association will once again develop the content of The Supervisor and we believe it is a publication you'll be proud to be a part of. The 2008 edition of The Supervisor can be viewed at our website, www.apsa-apd.org. Please take a look at last year's issue, as the feedback we received on the publication was tremendous. In addition, by viewing last year's edition of The Supervisor you will learn more about our organization and the activities we have participated in. We hope you will consider supporting us by purchasing advertising in our publication.

Please remember that this is our only fundraiser and mailer, assisted by Nordel Publishing Inc., the publisher of The Supervisor. There are many organizations that contact the public claiming to represent your local police department, or PBA. They are paid professional telemarketers and not from the Albany Police Supervisors' Association and have no affiliation with us.

On behalf of the members of the Albany Police Supervisors' Association, I would like to thank you for your generous support of our organization. I urge you to visit our website (www.apsa-apd.org) and if you have any question, please feel free to contact the Albany Police Supervisors' Association at 454-4352 or by email through our website.

Sincerely,

Detective Lieutenant Kevin M. Connolly
Editor, The Supervisor
